

Priesthood Charades

Instructions: Divide your family into two teams. The first team draws a strip of paper and acts out or draws while the other team tries to guess what they are doing, what office is represented, and what priesthood. The team gets a point for each. You may have more ideas that can be used but here are some to get you started.

A priest baptizing someone
A teacher preparing the sacrament
A deacon passing the sacrament to a family
A priest blessing the sacrament
A priest helping to ordain another priest
Home teaching
Two deacons collecting fast offerings
A deacon serving as the bishops messenger
A boy being confirmed
Two elders administering to a sick girl
A baby being given a name and a blessing
A patriarch giving a blessing
Missionaries at a door
